

UPLIFTING SPLENDOR

Like an open-air cathedral, lofty rafters raise the eye upward in this spectacular porch, grounded by cozy, cottage-style furnishings. White wicker combines with painted and natural wood in a conversational seating arrangement that offers a spacious extension of the home.

COLLECTED CHARM

An abundance of plump pillows imbues a comfortable and inviting air, ideal for sharing a beverage and an afternoon snack with fine companions or curling up alone with a good book. Groupings of ceramic vessels, some filled with summer's favorite blooms, lend visual elegance and a sense of continuity. A pair of misty-green doors invite all to enter the light, soothing chamber; a natural seagrass rug adds a subtle finishing layer.
